The firm of Nebigger & Resner of this city are making extensive and expensive improvements connected with their steam tile factory at Litchfield. They have recently added two more tile kilns of the improved pattern, making six in all now on the grounds, and built an addition 25 by 160 feet in size, which, with the old buildings on the grounds makes the Nebigger & Resner factory the largest establishment of the kind in the state. The buildings are fitted up complete with steam drying pipes, so that a full force of men can be kept at work day and night during winter and summer. The demand for tile is increasing every season to such an extent that it is difficult to supply the same, but the increased facilities alluded to will give N.

& R. something of an advantage over their competitors.

We notice that Herrmann, the great neoromancer and smasher of plug hats, is now in Chicago mystifying the public at so much a head. This item is printed for the information of Mr. Fleury, who has a claim against Herrmann for $6, wanted for damage done a plug hat not long ago.

The "hold up" robbery case in which two strangers now in custody are defendants, will come up for a hearing before Justice Lowry this afternoon. We learn that the negro who claims that he was robbed near the depot by the parties accused, has gone away and his whereabouts cannot be ascertained. His absence is deemed fortunate for the parties under arrest.

SINCE McClelland & Gilkeson retired from the agricultural implement business the Stepp store-room on the corner of Franklin street and the new square has been vacant. We learn that a couple of Cincinnati gentlemen contemplate coming to Decatur to engage in the sale of agricultural implements, and may occupy the room alluded to.

Every Monday evening a meeting of the Chatauqua Circle is held in the lecture room at the First M. E. Church.
The Circle is steadily increasing in membership as well as in interest.

DURING the social at the First M. E.
Church last night there was excellent vocal music given by Misses Florence Adams and Sallie McCord, and Messrs. N.
E. Adams and M. M. Strader, with Miss Roberts at the organ. Miss Nellie Davis gave an instrumental solo, and that accompanied young lady, Miss Minnie Baldwin, favored the people with a recitation. She is an eloquentist whom it is always a pleasure to hear.

The alarm of fire last evening was caused by the partial burning of a barn at the rear of Mr. Elias Tanner's property on North Main street. The barn invited in the hay loft, but the arrival of the firemen with apparatus soon speedily extinguished the flames. There was a cow in the stable, but she was taken out without being scorched. The loss is placed at $100 to $150. The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

A SUMMER party was given last evening at No. 23 West Decatur street, in honor of Mr. James Snarr. The party was arranged by Charles Snarr, and there were about 12 couples present. Prof.
Wilhelmy's orchestra supplied the music.

This morning we were presented by Rev. Musgrove with a number of large apples of the "Ben Davis" and "Northern Spy" varieties, which he gathered himself from the orchard of Mr. Ed Eicholtz, near Kimminity. These apples are the finest we have seen. Mr. E. has more apples on his place than he can ship away, because barrels in sufficient numbers cannot be secured.

The dime social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Freeman, last night, given by the ladies of the Baptist congregation, was well attended and proved a social success. The visitors spent several hours together very pleasantly.

Quite a sum of money was contributed.
The entertaining musical and literary entertainment embraced a piano solo by Miss Mamie Freeman, a recitation by Miss Gertie Fielder, a violin solo by Miss Gertie Randolph, and a recitation by Miss Sallie Snarr.

The meeting of the Presbyterians' Association of the "Decatur District" will be held at the First M. E. church, this city, commencing on Nov. 14th. The following ministers will engage in discussions: I.
W. Higgs, Pans; T. L. Coultas, Clinton; S. H. Whitlock, W. F. Shoemaker, G. W.
Heming, W. R. Howard, W. C. Lacy, A.
Bempe, W. D. H. Young, W. F. Lowe, Hornes Reed, P. A. Smart, W. F. Gilmore, W. A. Reynolds, J. W. Crane, H. A. Barton, J. P. Dimmitt, W. H. Musgrove, Curtis Powell, John Blaser, P. F. Gay and S. Middleton. Rev. Davies, presiding elder, will preside at the sessions.

TWO HAPPY SURPRISES.

Rev. Musgrove and Rev. Dimmitt. Each Presented with Handsome Gifts.

Two successful surprises, in which two highly esteemed ministers were the central figures, culminated last evening, and if they are ever dramatized the piece should be named "Retaliation." The first was a surprise presentation to Rev.
W. H. Musgrove, pastor of Stapp's Chapel for over two years. By previous arrangement a large portion of the congregation with Rev. Dr. Davies and Rev. J.
P. Dimmitt assembled in the lecture room of the Chapel and Rev. Musgrove was summoned from the parsonage to attend what he believed to be an official meeting. Dr. Davies presided. Rev. Dimmitt addressed the pastor in a reprimanding tone, and at the close relieved the suspense by presenting Rev. Musgrove on behalf of his congregation and friends with a copy of Rand & McNally's "Indexed Atlas of the World," elegantly bound and worth $30. Rev. Dimmitt's presentation remarks were as follows:

"Bro. Musgrove, I suppose you are aware that there has been some trouble brewing in your church during the past week. And while you seek to avoid all unpleasant relations with other people, and, in fact, trouble of all kinds, I would remind you that the true philosophy is to take life as it comes—the bitter with the sweet. It is my duty to lay upon you a burden, perhaps the heaviest that you have ever borne of the kind—a burden that you must bear alone, as your people have resolved to have nothing further to do with it. I therefore, in behalf of your friends of Stapp's Chapel, present you with the 'Atlas of the World.' The handsome gift, which is one of the standard works of the day, on which the compilers and publishers spent three and a half years' time and $92,000, was received with grateful thanks by Rev. M., who also took occasion to refer to the many generous acts of his people and friends, who had certainly made the sojourn of himself and family in Decatur indeed pleasant. At the conclusion of his speech-making and the singing, Mr. J. H. Brayton on behalf of the congregation, presented the Musgrove family with a fine array of flour, groceries, etc., and a purse of money.
Both presentations were watched with the closest interest by the spectators, and all shared alike in the success of the surprise. The people remained in the room and engaged in a social chat for nearly an hour, while J. R. Gorin and others arranged the retaliation surprise for Rev.
J. P. Dimmitt, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, where a pleasant and well attended social and festival was being held. The plan was to have Rev. D. return to his own church, and following him after a short interval came Rev. Musgrove and a large number of the Chapel folks. At the First church the crowd was so great that promenading was next to an impossibility. At the proper moment the bell was tapped, and Rev. Musgrove called Rev. Dimmitt to the stand. He was taken by the hand, and referring briefly to the event at the Chapel, Rev. M. spoke of the manner in which he had been surprised, told how he had borne up manfully on that occasion, and then announced that on behalf of the congregation of the First church, it was his privilege and pleasure to present Rev.
Dimmitt, whom he had learned to respect and love, with a volume of Rand & Mc-Nally's "Indexed Atlas of the World," a companion to the one he himself had received. The two ministers stood side by side with clasped hands, and as the spokesman ceased speaking, Rev. Dimmitt shook his head in a way peculiarly his own as he prepared himself for a response. He first alluded to the valuable gift, which he opened and held up that the people might see it, and said it was a present that any man might be proud of, but he was more grateful to the donors for their kindness in remembering him in such a generous manner. He spoke for about 10 minutes, and closed by invoking the divine blessing on all present.

The pair of surprises thus successfully brought to a close, the company conversed for an hour or more and partook of the refreshments provided by the ladies.

Meeting of Ex-Prisoners.

General Parvey, president of the Western National Ex-Prisoners Association, has written to D. M. Berlin, of Decatur, announcing that the annual meeting of ex-prisoners in the west will be held in Decatur at the same time and in conjunction with the meeting of the State Association, Nov. 24 and 25. Papers in neighoring towns will please copy this item and give publicity as much as possible to this union meeting. In so doing they will have the thanks of

EX-UNION PRISONERS.

W. C. F. U.

The following was passed at our last meeting:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Union are proffered to each and every one of those who so kindly assisted at our recent entertainment. Especially would we thank the ladies of the city, who, with Miss Lena Hendle, of the education-ary school, for their generous aid.

A Sensational Drama.

"Buffalo Bill" (Wm. F. Cody) and his combination will appear before the footlights at the opera house next Tuesday evening in "20 Days, or Buffalo Bill's Pledge." There will be plenty of excitament incidents to please the most exacting admirers of border plays. Said a Cincinnati paper:

The performance gave great satisfaction to all the boys present. We doubt whether there has not with a few exceptions been Buffalo Bill than a United States senator. The receipts of the evening were $725, being the largest and best the troupe ever had here, exceeding even last year's, when it was unusually large. This shows that Buffalo Bill's combination is increasingly popular wherever its performances are repeated; and even as to the audience itself, it was remarked that the very best class of people attended.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Mary Aoom, of Jacksonville, is visiting relatives in the city.

Geo. W. Heath, representing the Atkinson "Jollities," is in the city to-day.

Rev. Musgrove departed for Illinois this afternoon to remain there over night, as the guest of Mr. Isaac Loewe.

Rev. C. B. Roberts and Henry Smith, the druggist, started out this forenoon on a hunting expedition.

Hon. Jason Rogers has returned home after making a thorough canvass of Lo-gans county.

Mr. and Mrs. Heston I. Baldwin entertained a number of their friends at their home last evening.

Jack Renshaw arrived home from Danville last evening. He thinks the Funk case will be decided in favor of the defendant, though the jury may disagree.

Harry W. Peck, business agent for the John A. Stevens' comic opera company in the "Jolly Bachelors," is in the city today.

Rev. J. P. Hillierby, the new pastor of James' Chapel, paid us a friendly call this forenoon. He will preach at the Chapel next Sunday.

E. P. Vail and Charles Carens are announced to speak at Macon to-night, and Capt. John Wilkinson, Hugh Croa, and others will address the voters at Macon.

W. H. Starr writes home that the remainder of the Decatur hunting party will return to the city from Michigan on Saturday. The nimrods left behind killed three deer on Wednesday.

James D. Smith, eldest son of E. O.
Smith, who has been residing near Monmouth for a number of years, has rented his farm and has moved to Webster City, Iowa, near which place he will engage in farming pursuits.

Hon. L. L. Haworth, Thomas Lord, L.
L. Ferriss, William Bowers, John A.
Brookway, E. McClellan, and Joseph Shelbarger, of Topeka, Kansas, arrived here last night from Waukegan, Mich.
The party killed 14 deer up to the time they left. The other section of the party will return to-morrow evening.

Gen. Green B. Baum arrived in the city last evening from Taylorville, where he addressed a Republican meeting on Wednesday afternoon. This forenoon in company with Mr. J. W. Haworth he was driven about Decatur to view the many evidences of thrift and business enterprise. He departed for Sullivan at 10:40 a. m., where he speaks to-night. On Saturday he will speak at Toledo, Cumberland county. The General told a reporter that he was particularly well pleased with the meeting he addressed here a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. John McEvoy, who have been visiting in Boston and in other cities in the east for a month, returned home last evening. While at Syracuse, N. Y., they witnessed the grand pyrotech-nic display in honor of President Arthur, then in that city. While in Massachusetts Mr. McEvoy improved the opportunity to visit the many manufacturing establishments in which he was employed over 26 years ago, and John being a close observer, is full of interesting particulars of his trip. Mr. McEvoy landed in Decatur for the first time 26 years ago yesterday and he made it a point to arrive home last evening.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Experience of fifty years in this and other States has fully demonstrated that Mutual Fire Insurance is the cheapest and consequently the best. THE COM-MONWEALTH MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, of Decatur, Illinois, is organized under this basis, having for incorporators some of the most successful business men of Decatur, who have tested fully the Mutual plan of Fire Insurance; and being desirous of keeping the money at home instead of paying it to foreign corporations, they have freely given their experience, time and labor to the formation of The Commonwealth Mutual Fire Insurance Company, in order that the people of this section may derive all the benefits of such an institution and the additional benefit of keeping the insurance money at home. The Mutual system of Fire Insurance creates a personal interest in every policy holder, as every one who insures has an equal voice in its management. This is the surest guarantee the public can have, that the affairs of the Company will be managed solely in the interest of the policy holders.

Those wishing Insurance will please call at once, or address the Company at its office in "Central Block" where the Secretary or General Inspector will be pleased to write up any insurance you may desire to place with The Commonwealth Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Decatur, Ill.

Grasse.

It is something in these days of shams and deceptions, when everything seems to be made of the least probable ingredients, to find that the roses which we put on our handkerchiefs are still distilled from flowers. No one who has been to Grasse can doubt it. When once the flower season begins, every alley in the town smells strong of violets or roses, blossoms, or roses, according to the particular flower that the perfumers are at work upon. The cultivation of flowers is the great industry of the district. Roses, violets, narcissus, jasmine and tuberose are grown in fields, just like turnips or mangels with us; and in a good season the land thus employed brings in a much better return than if it were sown with wheat or any other crop. It certainly takes away from all the roses in the flower of see them thus grown wholesale, and the blossoms tossed about with a little care or ceremony as hay or straw. The flowers are all bought by weight at so much a kilo, and must consequently be all hand-picked, and as free from stems as possible. Picking the flowers, especially the violets, is very hard work when continued for many hours at a stretch, as has to be done in the height of the season, when the flowers are really so carpeted with blue that not a green leaf of the plant is to be seen, and when all these blossoms must be gathered and sold before they show the first symptoms of fading. Roses are computed in prodigious quantities, for a great deal of the so-called Eastern attar of roses is made at Grasse. During the rose season bands of girls are employed in simply picking the petals from the blossoms. In this work there is a great deal of the flower is covered half a foot thick with rose leaves, looking like drifts of untamed snow. Neroli, the essence of orange blossom, equivalent in strength to attar of roses, is another of the special products of Grasse, and the perfumers of Cologne are supplied from here with that and other essences, which they alone have the secret of converting into their famous scented water, in which the so-called Eau de Grasse is a very poor imitation. One kilo, or two pounds weight, of orange petals are used in making one gramme of Neroli.

There are ninety perfumeries in the department and by far the greater number of them are in the town of Grasse itself. Among the legion of men thus employed may be found every degree of fortune and social importance.
There are the great factories, with scores of hands, and others where the perfumers work by steam, after the most approved methods, and a counting-house is attached, where a few clerks and foreign correspondents conduct all the business on paper, but know nothing of the mechanical part of the trade. The perfumer himself is a man of fortune, who has a showy chateau in the neighborhood, or perhaps he is a Deputy, and lives in Paris, and troubles himself very little about his business as long as it keeps his pockets regularly replenished. But in contrast to this there is the homespun perfumer who looks to everything himself, and does it all on his own premises. Here one may watch the skills at work in a delightful confusion in which rabbits and other domestic pets make themselves perfectly at home, and rush about unrestrained, and where the master gives vague orders to nondescript male and female assistants. Here blossoms are heaped on the floor, and mysterious vials of incense are stored in the shelves in one and the same room, and ever anon a blue-bloused clerk emerges from the den that is called by courtesy a bureau, with pontified air, to give his advice and opinion as to all the mysteries of the craft. Yet here, too, the perfumer prides himself on being a wholesale dealer, and sends his wares to big houses both in London and Paris.

—There has been discovered in the sandstone rock at the Nevada State Prison what is considered a great find. It is the marks of the sandstone of a human being, and the marks of the track of a mammoth in the same piece of sandstone, or upon the same level, showing that man and mammoth lived not only in the same age, but in the same year, and, perhaps, in the same day. These marks were found in the sandstone quarry at a depth of five feet below the surface, and were made at the time the marks were made, the man being in the sandstone and the mammoth in the sandstone.

—Taming a Wild Partridge.

To domesticate the partridge has frequently been attempted, but rarely succeeded. The eggs have been placed under the ordinary hen for incubation, thinking by association with the nest matters the little partridge chicks would become domestic. Great mistake. The young partridges to their natural wild life. Last winter in Bolton, Zeno Thomas, while at work in the woods a short distance from his house, frequently saw a partridge, and in the goodness of his heart would scatter a few grains of food for it. Last spring, while at work clearing the ground, he noticed a partridge that seemed not to possess the natural wildness of its species, and, after a short time, by feeding and kind attention, would permit itself to be handled. Mr.
Thomas at any time, by calling "Dick, Dick," could get the bird to appear, much to the amusement of his neighbors. Mr.
Thomas had taken the bird to his home, hoping to induce him to remain with domestic fowls, but as soon as liberated "Dick" flew away to his haunts in the woods. "Dick" is now a pet, and of approximate size, and for several days would not permit Mr. Thomas to touch him.—Troy
